SENIOR YEAR

The Digitank Studios, Inc. announces the screening of the film entitled, Senior Year.

The film is a glimpse into the lives of ten high school students as they struggle through the final months before their graduation. It is a story about high school life, chasing dreams and coming of age. It endeavors to depict high school as essentially when ambition and dreams come into fruition. It is when childish ways are thrown out in exchange of seeds of maturity, the beginning of adulthood and the start of bumpy ride towards the real life.

The film also tackles the "bitter-sweet" travails of interesting teen personalities, inevitable complexities involving teachers and students and how their senior year turned around as they head through life's unknown destination.
